Picture perfect

With professional photographer Ute Sonnenberg's fantastic Photographic Safaris and Training Experiences, Roho Ya Chui, you can soak in the warm African sun and take stunning photographs while you're at it.

WHERE YOU'LL STAY: Courses are held in some of the most beautiful settings including Masai Mara, Kenya, Sabi Sands and the exquisite Pakamisa Mountain Lodge in KwaZulu-Natal. Each of the eight luxurious suites at the five-star Pakamisa Lodge has been individually styled after an African animal and the verandah is the perfect spot for a pre-dinner cocktail. After a dip in the rustic rock pool, grab a book from the hotel library and curl up on one of the soft couches in the main house's living room. End your day around a crackling camp fire.

WHAT TO DO: Join Ute Sonnenberg on one of her photographic courses and capture images of the majestic Arabian horses. When you're not snapping away, enjoy a scenic horse ride, a long walk through the unspoilt bushveld and an open-air game drive. And you won't want to miss one of the eye-opening cultural tours to the nearby traditional Zulu villages where you'll be entertained by Zulu dancers and have an opportunity to buy stunning handmade arts and crafts.

GIRLIE EXTRAS Dance to live music on the hotel's sweeping terrace with its panoramic views of the rolling hills.

HOW MUCH: R7 250 includes three nights accommodation, meals, a horse ride and the four-day photography course. rohoiachui.com w&h
